MY STORY

I'M JORDAN

Growing up, I was always the friend with a camera in hand, documenting every little moment and making silly short films just for the joy of it. I've always been captivated by the power of storytelling—how a simple idea could come to life through the lens and create something meaningful. This passion for film drove me to pursue my studies at the Northern Film School, where I graduated in 2013. That experience gave me the foundation to explore the art of filmmaking in a professional capacity.

Over the past decade, I've dedicated my time to honing my craft, immersing myself in various forms of film and photography. These experiences shaped my creative perspective and gave me the confidence to experiment with different styles and approaches. While I've dabbled in many avenues, I found my true passion in weddings—where every moment is rich with emotion, meaning, and individuality. There's something incredibly fulfilling about telling a couple's story, capturing the essence of who they are and the journey they're embarking on together.

I like to think of my role as the director, while the couples I meet are the writers. They bring their love, their quirks, their story, and I get the honor of bringing it all to life in a way that reflects their unique connection. I truly care about the cinematography involved, this isn't just content, each frame has intent.

Watching JGVP grow over the years has been a journey filled with challenges, growth, and moments of immense pride. It's been so rewarding to see how far it's come, and I feel incredibly privileged to have couples place their trust in me to document one of the most important days of their lives. To me, it's not just about filming or taking photos; it's about telling a story that they'll cherish forever.

MY APPROACH

I'M THERE TO DOCUMENT YOUR DAY, NOT DICTATE IT

Every couple's story is unique, whether through stills or film, I aim to capture the true spirit of your day.

I try to be as unobtrusive as possible, letting moments play out naturally to capture, while still leaving aside half hour to grab some epic portraits of the two of you.

I limit group photos to no more than 8 - less stress, more smiles is my thing. This leaves more time for you to enjoy your drinks reception and mingle with your guests!

Audio is incredibly important in my films, you create the narrative! What is said during the ceremony and speeches will help drive the direction in which I edit your film, so tell some bloody good stories!

For my photo and video package, I work alongside some amazing associate photographers who I trust to help me capture it all. These packages are subject to their availability.
